

ANNOUNCEMENT

Full Implementation of eServices Portal System for License to Operate (LTO) Application of Drug Distributor, Drug Trader, Drugstore, RONPD, CRO, and Sponsor

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA), in its commitment to provide stakeholders with streamlined and improved government services, has issued FDA Circular No. 2020-030 on 16 October 2020 as implementing guideline in the application for License to Operate (LTO) of Drug Non-Manufacturing Establishments in the eServices Portal System.

Starting 03 November 2020, the FDA shall now accept LTO application (Initial, Renewal, and Variation) of the following Drug Establishments nationwide:

- (1) Drug Distributor
- (2) Drug Trader
- (3) Drugstore
- (4) Retail Outlet for Non-Prescription Drug (RONPD)
- (5) Clinical Research Organization (CRO)
- (6) Sponsor

The eServices Portal System is accessible through this website: eservices.fda.gov.ph

The ePortal System shall remain online for Drug Establishments with on-going/in-process LTO applications and Drug Manufacturer LTO applications.

For information and guidance.
