The Food and Drug Administration (FDA), in coordination with the Philippine National Police, conducted a raid in the premises of FIRST LAGUNA ORGANICS MARKETING COOPERATIVE located in San Pedro, Laguna last 20 April 2017. The operations resulted to the discovery and seizure of numerous food products violating Republic Act 3720 as amended by Republic Act 9711 or the "FDA Act of 2009". Said establishment, operating without FDA License, was manufacturing and repacking food products under unsanitary conditions, which deems the food products adulterated and unfit for human consumption. In addition, the food products were verified to be not registered with the FDA. The consumption of these violative products poses potential health hazards to the consuming public.

In the interest of public health protection, the consumers are advised not to purchase or consume the food products identified below. Likewise, the concerned establishments that are in possession of these products for commercial distribution are STERNLY WARNED not to distribute the same and surrender them immediately to the FDA:
