FDA ADVISORY
No. 2014-023

SUBJECT: Releasing of All Authorizations Issued by the Center for Cosmetic Regulation and Research (CCRR) for Toys Establishments

The Central Releasing Unit under the Administration and Finance Office (AFO) of the Food and Drug Administration serves as the common exit point for all authorizations officially released by the agency. Such a system allows monitored and accountable release of authorizations.

In pursuit of reducing informal and unofficial release of documents as well as to facilitate tracking of FDA authorizations issued by CCRR for toys establishments which include (1) certificates of conformity, (2) clearance for conditional release, (3) clearance for customs release, (4) certificate of exemption and (5) Licenses to Operate for toys establishments; the aforementioned authorizations will be released from Central Releasing Unit, AFO effective 3 April 2014.
